

T.C. goes to school at the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls.
He is leaving Schindler Education Center.

T.C. paints scenery on the stage of the Gallagher-Bluedorn Performing Arts Center.

When the weather is nice, Panthers like to study outside.

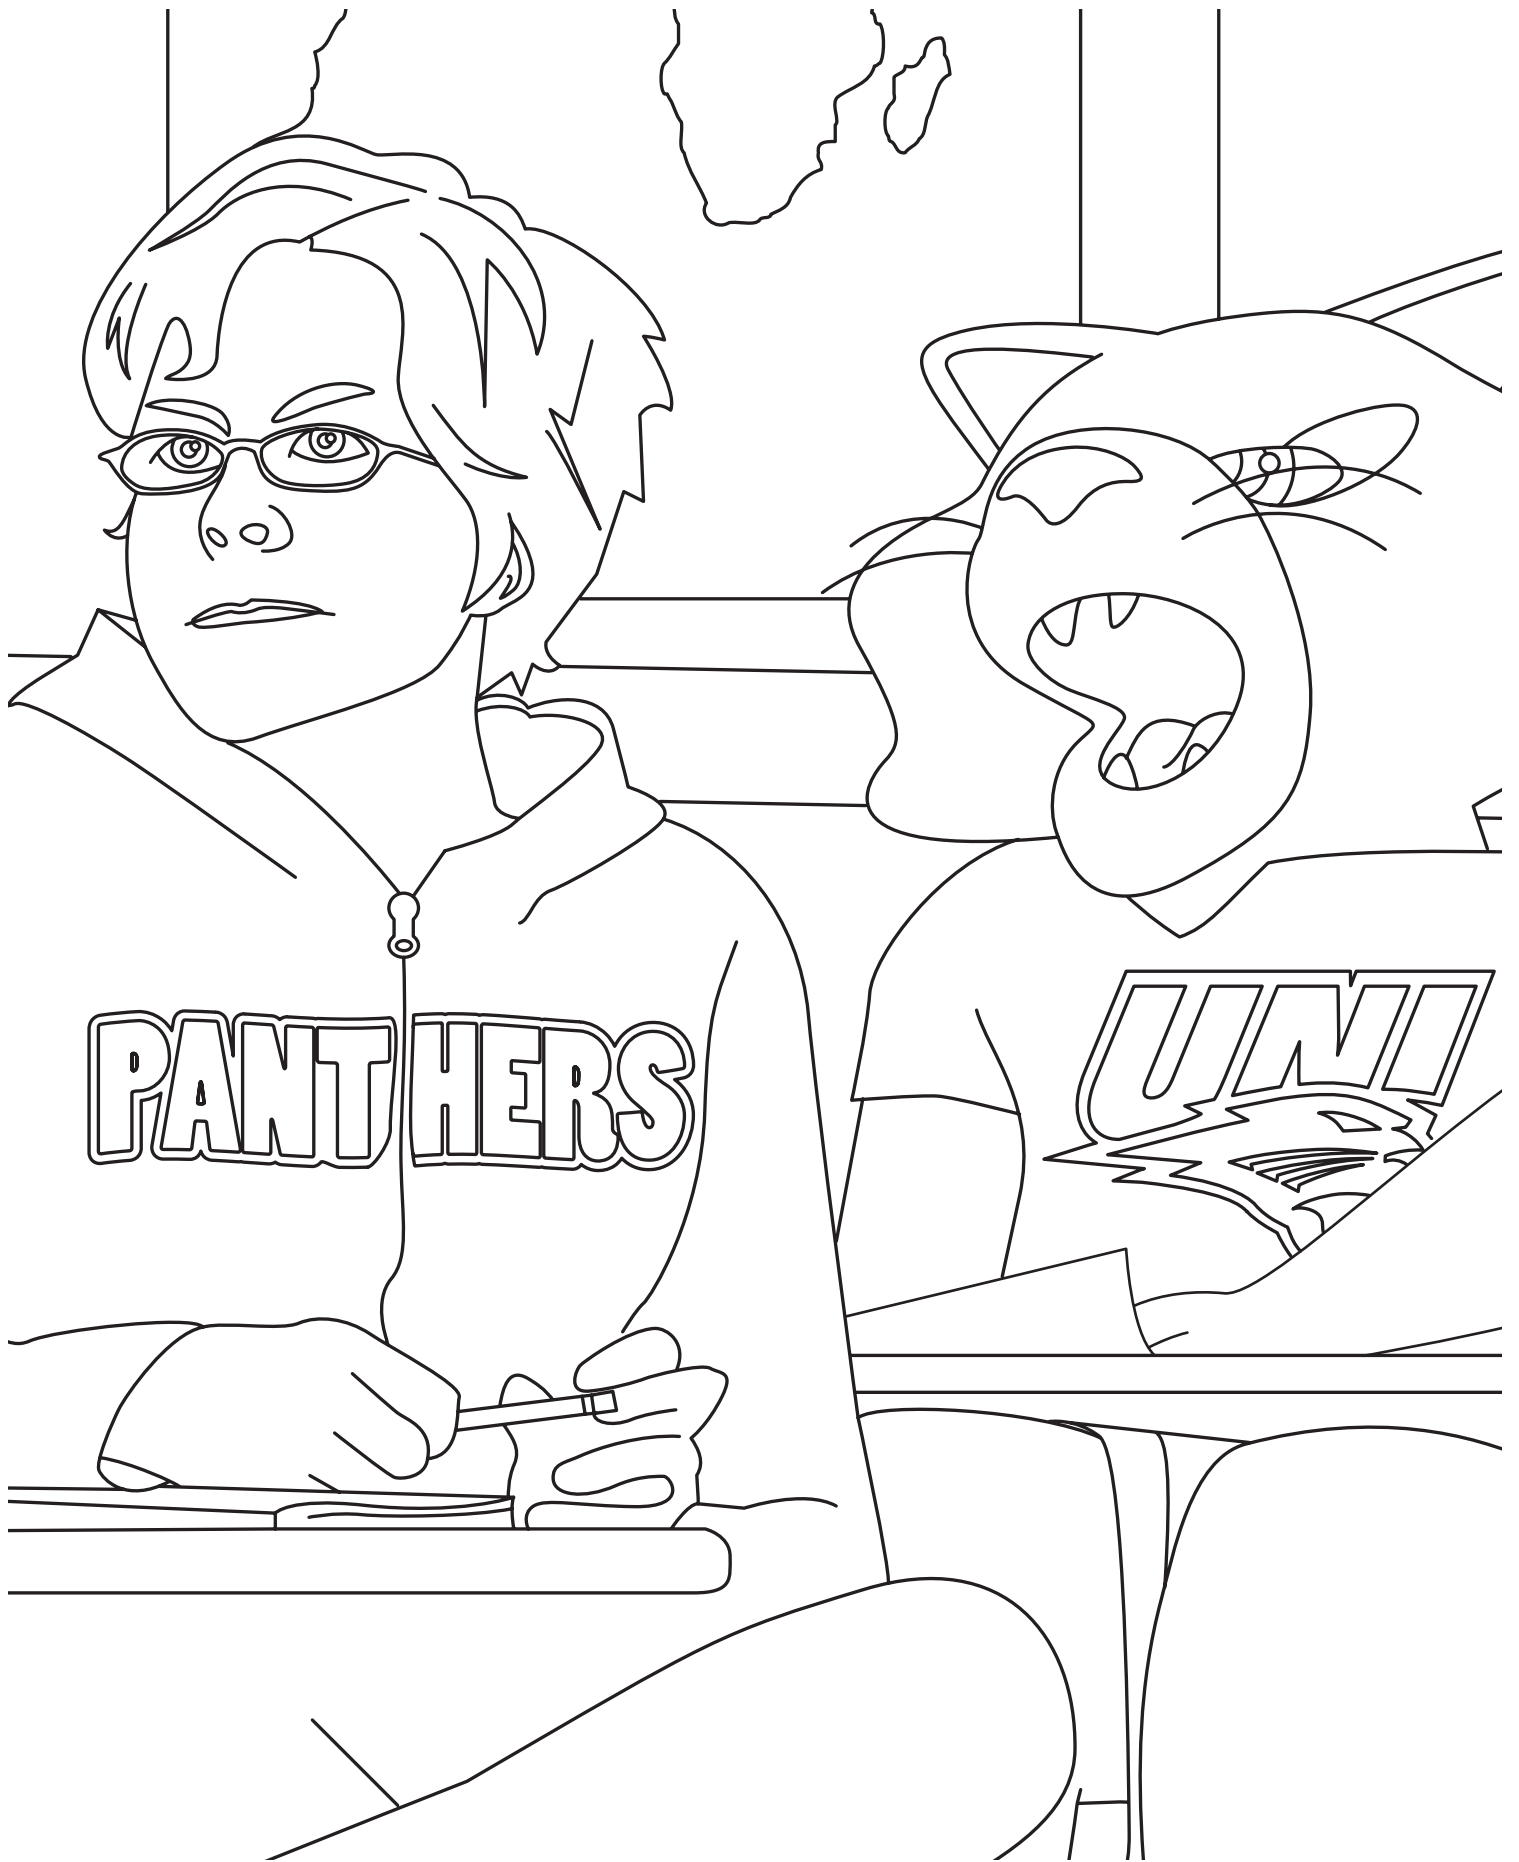

The Panther women's soccer team is the newest addition to UNI's fine athletic program.

He learns all about chemistry at McCollum Science Hall.

T.C. has lunch with his friends at Maucker Union.
There is so much to choose from.

At UNI, T.C. learns from some of the best teachers in the world.

It's Saturday, and the football team storms the UNI-Dome. Go Panthers!